

Who Will Dry My Tears?

(Part I of a 4-part series for those who are mourning)

Join us for an afternoon workshop led by Fr. Gerry

Wednesday, October 21st

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

St. Irenaeus Parish Hall

There is no cost to attend, but space is limited

Please RSVP by signing up online or calling 248-656-8720

While grief is a universal emotion, it is—at the same time—very personal. People experience a wide range of feelings and behaviors concerning death. The feelings of guilt, anger, denial, and sadness are all part of the grieving process. Fr. Gerry will help us better understand the grieving process, and provide us with tools to help us cope. Understanding what we're going through will help us to embrace life with a sense of hope.

